

THE CECELIA SIEMEN SCHOLARSHIP in the VISUAL ARTS

PURPOSE OF THE SCHOLARSHIP

The Board of Trustees of the South Yarmouth Library Association (SYLA), in collaboration with the Cultural Center of Cape Cod, is pleased to announce that applications are being accepted for the 2023 Cecelia Siemen Scholarship in the Visual Arts. Since 2002, SYLA has sponsored the Siemen Scholarship which was established in memory of Cecelia Siemen by her family to provide financial aid to a visual arts student enrolled in a college, university, or art institute.

For the 2023 cycle of this award, the Cultural Center of Cape Cod, on behalf of SYLA, will be overseeing the application and evaluation process for this scholarship.

Students who meet the conditions of eligibility as stated below and who believe they show the most promise for development in one or more areas of the Visual Arts are encouraged to apply. Visual arts is understood to include, but is not limited to: painting, photography, animation, and multimedia works as well as sculpture, film, textiles and graphic arts.

The $5,000 award is aimed at advancing the study and knowledge of someone who is likely to make future contributions in the visual arts field. There are no residency requirements. In addition, the recipient will have an opportunity for an opening reception and art show display at the Cultural Center of Cape Cod.

The award is to be used for the recipient's qualified educational expenses such as tuition, fees and course materials at an eligible college, university, or art institute. The completed application is due June 1, 2023.

GUIDELINES FOR EVALUATION

Applicants will be evaluated by a committee consisting of a panel of artists and chaired by a Trustee. Criteria for the evaluation will include the following:

1. Originality and creativity as indicated by portfolio work, academic records, transcripts, letters of recommendation and awards.
2. Promise of development in one or more fields of visual arts including the consideration of the candidate's interest in and potential for future growth.

ELIGIBILITY GUIDELINES AND SUBMISSION REQUIREMENTS
